JAPS IN DESPERATE STRAITS.

Southern Army Compelled to Draw Up on Oku's Forces.

St. Petersburg, Aug. 22.—The latest reports from Port Arthur indicate that the Japanese are holding out with wonderful tenacity in the face of persistent desperate assaults. The only question is, how long any body of troops can withstand such awful punishment and whether the garrison in the fortress can outlast the Japanese ammunition and men.

The report that thirty regiments have been drawn from General Oku to strengthen the attackers is believed to indicate that the Japanese Southern army is in desperate straits and seems to show that the Japanese have not enough men to prosecute simultaneous campaigns of great magnitude in the north and south.

CRUISER NOVIK SUNK

JAPANESE WARSHIPS DESTROY RUSSIAN VESSEL AFTER A HARD FIGHT.

Tokio, Aug. 22.—After a severe engagement with the protected cruisers Chitose and Tsushima, the greyhounds of the Japanese navy, the fleet Russian cruiser Novik has been vanquished. The fight occurred Sunday. After it the Novik, in a sinking condition, was run ashore in Korsakov harbor, Sakhalin islands.

The details of the fight are not known here, but it is evident that the Chitose and Tsushima caught up with the Novik Saturday and that a running fight ensued. The contest was resumed and terminated early Sunday morning. Captain Takahashi, who is in command of the Chitose, reported the engagement in a brief telegram which reached the navy department here Sunday morning. He said he first attacked the Russian cruiser Saturday afternoon and that on Sunday morning he inflicted heavy damage upon her. The Novik heavily sank but was beached at Korsakov.

Temporary repairs, however, rendered the Russian cruiser seaworthy and she continued to fight, until she was beached in a sinking condition. The Tsushima was hit on the starboard bunker, but the damage has already been repaired. There was no other damage nor was there a single casualty on either of the Japanese vessels.

THE STEAMER MINNESOTA.

Giant Vessel of Great Northern Company at New York.

New York, Aug. 22.—Coming direct from the yards of her builders at New London, Conn., the steamer Minnesota, the largest American built vessel afloat, and in point of tonnage, ranking fourth largest vessel in the world, arrived at this port Sunday night and anchored outside the bar to await daylight before proceeding into the harbor. She flies the flag of the Great Northern Steamship company of New York, for whom she was built by the Eastern Shipbuilding company of New London. The Minnesota will ply between Tacoma and Seattle and the far East. While the Minnesota is to be classed as a passenger ship, she is intended to carry enormous cargoes of freight across the Pacific. She has a speed of 15 knots, is 630 feet long, 73½ feet broad and has a net tonnage of 15,323.

SNYMAN VISITS ROOSEVELT.

Noted Boer Soldier a Caller at Sagamore Hill.

Oyster Bay, Aug. 22.—President Roosevelt passed Sunday very quietly at Sagamore Hill with the members of his family. No guests were received formally, although during the afternoon and evening a few relatives and friends called to pay their respects. Among the callers were General G. B. Snyman, who distinguished himself as a Boer officer in the war with Great Britain. For several days he has been a guest of E. E. Everett, a cousin of the president.

President Roosevelt and General Snyman talked for a time about the latter's plans for the establishment of a Boer colony in Mexico. The president manifested keen interest in the project. General Snyman told him that 90,000 good acres of land had been acquired for the colony and that he expected to have eighty Boer families settled on it early in the autumn.

SEVERE STORM IN CHICAGO.

Wind and Rain Cause Heavy Damage to Property.

Chicago, Aug. 22.—A severe wind and electrical storm passed over the city Sunday evening doing much damage in the suburbs. Several small fires were started by the lightning and the downpour of rain was so heavy that many basements were flooded and much property damaged. Northwest of the city hundreds of acres of corn were beaten down by the wind and rain and much of it will be lost.

TWIN CITIES SWEEP BY FIERCE TORNADO

ENORMOUS PROPERTY LOSS

ESTIMATED THAT THE DAMAGE WILL TOTAL FULLY TWO MILLION DOLLARS.

SAD SCENE OF DESOLATION

PATH OF STORM STREWN WITH THE SHATTERED WRECKS OF ONCE HAPPY HOMES.

St. Paul, Aug. 22.—Eleven dead, 104 injured and a property loss of over $2,000,000 is a verified record of the damage inflicted by the cyclone which passed over St. Paul and vicinity Saturday night, leaving in its path a scene of desolation and a calamity stricken people.

Each hour Sunday brought additional tales of dead and injured, of families rendered homeless and enormous property losses—the whole aggregating an appalling list which will go on record with the great and awful catastrophes that have befallen the nation during the past year.

Dealing death and destruction everywhere in its path, the cyclone has devastated a territory thirty miles in area. From outlying districts there are reports of whole towns swept away, of scores of families left homeless to mourn the dead and injured.

At Waconia, a town of 400 inhabitants, about forty miles southwest of St. Paul, the fury of the storm was not appeased until the death of four persons and the injury of twenty others had been recorded.

St. Louis Park, a suburb of Minneapolis, was plunged in the depths of deepest sorrow. Out of a population of a few hundred three are dead and over a score injured.

By many it was supposed that the reports immediately following the storm had been greatly exaggerated and that with the coming of day and the quieting of excitement it would be found that the loss both in life and property would not be so dreadfully appalling. But with the sunrise came verification of what had been thought the wildest rumors, and with each succeeding hour in the day the enormity of the disaster grew.

PROPERTY LOSS FALLS UPON THE MASSES OF THE PEOPLE.

The loss is an even greater calamity than would appear upon the face of the statement, inasmuch as it is almost total. Not the big insurance corporations nor the firms which control millions are the greatest losers, but instead they are the private citizens, the heads of families struggling for existence, the farmer, whose livelihood from year to year depends upon his crops—the masses.

In but few instances so far as recorded are the losses covered by insurance, as practically all of the policies held by owners of destroyed property did not contain clauses indemnifying against loss by tornadoes.

In St. Paul the dead number three; the injured forty-five. Of those who are hurt it is reported by physicians that all will recover. Following is a list of the dead in St. Paul:

Lorin F. Hokason, 586 Brunson street; killed at Tivoli theater. George Kweton, 378 Toronto avenue; killed at Tivoli theater.

Viola Robinson, fourteen years old, orphan, killed at the House of the Good Shepherd.

In the country adjacent to St. Paul there are direful reports of the disaster. Crops ruined, homes destroyed and the occupants left homeless are the tales that are repeated over and over again. The loss to farmers, while as yet impossible to accurately estimate, will reach many thousands of dollars, and probably in no case are the losses covered by insurance.

At Stillwater the damage inflicted by the hurricane totals $100,000. Lumbermen were among the heaviest losers. No injuries of serious consequence, however, are reported in Stillwater, though property in the city suffered greatly.

CYCLONE PRECEDED BY STORM OF NO VERY GREAT SEVERITY.

It was 9:15 o'clock when the whirlwind passed over the city. For thirty minutes previous rain had been falling with occasional flashes of lightning. Though since early evening clouds had been gathering in the north, there was no indication of a serious storm.

With a deafening roar the cyclone burst over the city. Everywhere, amid the crashing of glass and the din of falling timbers, people quaked in terror.

Rain fell in torrents, as, whirling and swirling, carrying everything before it in the black vortex, the cyclone swept over the city.

The path of the storm seemed to follow the river valley. The roar as it swept along was terrific. And then there came a lull. But the lull was only for a moment.

With apparently increased force the cyclone seemed to turn in its path and again passed over the city. The second visitation was more terrific than the first. At the weather bureau a wind velocity of 100 miles an hour was recorded.

The moments that followed were moments of terror. Panic stricken from the first visitation of the storm, people rushed for cellars.

For probably a minute the whirling cloud of inky blackness enveloped everything, dealing death and destruction in its path. It seized huge timbers and hurled them hundreds of feet into the air. Bars of steel and iron were twisted and bent like straws. Roofs of buildings were lifted bodily into the street. Telegraph and telephone poles, as well as trees, went down like grain before a hail storm.

The effect was appalling. In the first few minutes after the cyclone passed people flocked from their homes to view the disaster.

Upon all sides the scene was one of wreck and devastation. Where before there had been beautiful residence streets, shaded by lofty trees, there was now a waste of debris. Homes that but a few moments before sheltered families in dryness and comfort were now unroofed and in ruins. Street car traffic was paralyzed.

CROWDS THRONGED STREETS TO SEARCH FOR THE MISSING.

And then, when it was evident that danger had passed, crowds of anxious persons hastened to the down town districts to inquire for missing relatives and friends. The streets were crowded with wild, hysterical questioners.

Wild rumors of details of the calamity spread about with lightning-like rapidity. There was no telephone service to relieve the anxiety. The headquarters of the police department was converted into an information bureau.

The storm in St. Paul seemed to center at Bridge square, where it struck the frail structure of the Tivoli music hall and crushed it like an egg-shell, burying its 200 terrified patrons in the debris. It was here that the greatest loss of life in St. Paul occurred, and here the majority of serious injuries were recorded, for from the mass of debris mangled forms were borne by the score.

The House of Good Shepherds was badly damaged and one child was killed and many others injured, none fatally.

The two highest spans of the high bridge across the Mississippi river were snapped off on the West Side end and hurled, a twisted mass of iron and steel, down upon the shanties beneath, the occupants of which had all taken shelter in a cave and escaped injury.

Down Third street from Wabasha to Shibley, up both Jackson and Robert streets from Third to Tenth, and down Seventh street from Broadway to Bradley, the greatest destruction was wrought.

Fort Snelling escaped without much damage.

LOSS AT MINNEAPOLIS

SEVERAL PERSONS KILLED AND MUCH VALUABLE PROPERTY DESTROYED.

Minneapolis, Aug. 22.—The storm which visited Minneapolis caused damage to the amount of several hundred thousand dollars and cost a number of lives.

One man was killed in Minneapolis and three persons met death at St. Louis Park. At Waconia, one of the towns beyond Lake Minnetonka, four persons met death in the storm.

The only person killed in Minneapolis was Richard Hilgedick. Three persons were killed and over twenty injured by the storm which swept over the St. Louis Park district. Property valued at $100,000 was destroyed. The heaviest loser is T. B. Walker, the Minneapolis capitalist, who owns most of the twenty houses which were overturned and some of the manufacturing buildings.

The dead are Albert Ohde, aged thirty-two; Anna Haydo, aged six, and six-year-old son of Frank Hedger.

When day broke in Minneapolis Sunday morning there was a sorry sight. In the business district there were shattered store fronts, plate glass gave way to tarpaulin, telephone and telegraph wires trailed in the street, policemen were on guard at all places of business, bricks from shattered chimneys covered the pavement and stocks of valuable goods were scattered about the street or else massed in piles in the stores whose shelves they had once adorned, saturated with water and almost valueless.

Progress Difficult and Dangerous.

In the residence district trees which lined the street were lying prostrate. Locomotion in street or on walk was impossible, and dangling telephone and electric light wires made progress difficult and dangerous.

Considering the intensity of the storm, the fact that the residence districts of the city escaped with comparatively slight damage is remarkable.

Although a few structures were unroofed and the contents of the buildings drenched with water, as a rule the people of these districts suffered no great loss.

While the wind carried down trees which have withstood the storms of years, there was comparatively little damage to the structures. Frequently a house would be seen covered by half a dozen trees which had been thrown upon it by the winds, but in many instances not even a light of glass would be broken.

It was not until daylight that the full extent of the damage of the storm could be realized. Then it was found that on Nicollet avenue, from Fourth to Eighth streets, there was a paucity of plate glass and abundance of tarpaulins and boarded windows.

Pulverized glass, covered the entire business section of the city, and men were busy with shovels and brooms collecting the mass which had accumulated on the sidewalks.

Five Minneapolis churches sustained severe damage during the storm.

WACONIA IS STRICKEN

Waconia, Minn., Aug. 22.—The cyclone which struck this village Saturday appeared to vent its full force on one family, three of whom were instantly killed and one so badly wounded that there is no hope for his recovery. While hundreds had escapes of the most miraculous character, the family of Gustaf Moye suffered the full fury of the wind, and father, mother and one son were instantly killed by the crash of their little home.

Of the 100 houses, residences and stores, seventy are more or less demolished, and the country for a strip one-half mile in width extending four miles along the Minneapolis and St. Louis tracks east and west, there is scarcely a building standing. Four dead, nine seriously injured and a property loss of $250,000 is the story in brief of the worst storm in the history of the community.

Gustaf Moye, aged forty-two; Mrs. Gustaf Moye, aged forty; Freddie Moye, aged four, and Hubert Loahmer, aged seventy-nine, were killed, and Fred Picha, eleven years old, was so seriously injured he will die.

Agree to Maintain Peace.

Corinto, Nicaragua, Aug. 22.—The conference between Presidents Escobar of Salvador, Bonilla of Honduras and Zelaya of Nicaragua came to a close here Saturday night. The three presidents signed an agreement to maintain peace in the republics of Central America.

ENTIRE TOWN IS GONE

WILLOW LAKE, S. D., SAID TO HAVE BEEN LITERALLY WIPED OFF THE MAP.

St. Paul, Aug. 22.—The little town of Willow Lake, S. D., was literally wiped off the map by the terrific storm of Saturday night. The town was situated on the Huron-Benson division of the Great Northern railroad, thirty miles north of Huron.

Scores of houses were wrecked and scarcely a house was left standing on its original foundations, and few escaped without injury.

Telegraph poles and wires and many miles of fences were overturned. Crops were completely destroyed.

A number of persons were seriously injured, and it is thought that some may have been killed.

TO BEAT NONUNION MEN.

Chicago Truckmen Said to Have Made an Agreement.

Chicago, Aug. 22.—Captain Clancy of the stockyards police station announced Sunday that a man who had been arrested with a number of others for beating a nonunion man employed in the stockyards had confessed to him that the local union No. 213 of the Truckmen's union had unanimously voted to adopt slugging methods in connection with the stockyards strike, and that the 600 members of the organization had been divided into squads by Business Agent James Devine. The duty of these squads, which, according to the confession, Captain Clancy says he obtained from his prisoner, was to drag nonunion men from street cars and beat them.

Alexander Brezovsky, a nonunion man, was dragged from an Ashland avenue car near Thirty-eighth street, severely beaten, robbed of his shoes and left half dead in the gutter. The police arrested Christian Byron, Albert Allison, Marcus Debussek and John Petrasky on a charge of being implicated in the assault.

After being taken to the station, Byron, according to Captain Clancy, told him the story given above. In addition, he declared that he and his companions boarded the car and Brezovsky was pointed out to them by the conductor. They dragged him from the car and beat him.

INDIAN SLAYER IS DEAD.

George Salter of Pioneer Fame Dies in Wisconsin.

New Lisbon, Wis., Aug. 22.—George Salter, known throughout this section as a bitter Indian hater who, during his life killed eighteen redskins to avenge the murder of his wife, died Sunday at the age of seventy-six years. Salter's wife was murdered in 1865, and he is said to have slain the murderer of his wife and seventeen other Indians.

DRIVE OUT RUSSIANS

ATTACKING FORCE DEFEATED

RUSSIAN ARTILLERY MAKES POSITION TOO HOT FOR THE JAPANESE TROOPS.

Chefoo, Aug. 22.—The Japanese have swept the Russians from Pigeon bay and captured the northernmost fort of the western line of inner defenses at Port Arthur. The Russian artillery prevents the Japanese from occupying the fort on Pigeon bay.

Information from Port Arthur up to Aug. 18, shows that the besiegers have been reinforced by thirty regiments from General Oku's army.

Heavy firing was heard by the steamer Slyphall on Aug. 20.

A general assault is expected to be made upon the fortress Sunday and Monday.

The first detailed news of the general assault on Port Arthur indicates that a tremendous conflict is raging and that victory is hanging in the balance.

Chinese who left Port Arthur Sunday and arrived here Monday state that the Japanese, by making desperate charges which were reinforced by an artillery fire from Shushien and Louisa bay, swept from the north into Pigeon bay territory and drove the Russians back from the main forts. The ground being comparatively flat in this vicinity, the Japanese were unable to hold it in the face of the Russian artillery fire, and they retired north an eighth of a mile beyond the zone of the fire.

The Chinese declared that the Japanese captured one important fort located on the Hs Shan hills, midway between the western coast and the railway on a line drawn approximately from a point midway between Pigeon and Louisa bays.

The fighting resulting in the capture of this fort was very severe.

REPORTS A JAP REPULSE.

General Stoessel Tells of Fighting at Port Arthur.

St. Petersburg, Aug. 22.—Emperor Nicholas has received the following message from Lieutenant General Stoessel, commander of the military forces at Port Arthur, dated Aug. 16:

"Japanese made a two days' attack on our positions at Uglovia mountains, near Louisa bay. All their attacks were repulsed. The Uglovia, Visoglia and Divisionia mountains remain in our hands. The enemy's losses were very great.

"The following officers particularly distinguished themselves: General Kondratonko, Colonel Irman, Lieutenant Colonel Yelochin and Captain Androff.

"This morning a representative of the Japanese army, Major Yamarakoa, presented himself at our advanced post with a letter signed by General Nogi and Admiral Togo, demanding the surrender of the fortress. The proposal was, of course, rejected.

"I have the happiness to report that troops are in excellent condition and that they fight heroically."

WANT TO FIGHT AT MUKDEN.

Russians Think Japs Will Not Attack Liaoyang.

Mukden, Aug. 22.—The belief is increasing here that the Japanese do not intend to make a direct attack on General Kuropatkin's position at Liaoyang. The movements of the Japanese and other information indicate that they will try, rather, to force an engagement in the vicinity of Mukden.

The rains have not damaged the railway but have destroyed a number of bridges.

A small fight occurred on Aug. 19 on the Motien pass road, seven miles east of Liaoyang, but its results were unimportant.

TELEGRAPHIC BREVITIES.

Senator Hoar of Massachusetts shows no sign of improvement.

A heavy rain has aided materially in extinguishing the forest fires in Northern Montana.

A furious rainstorm prevailed all over Southeastern Iowa Sunday, doing considerable damage to standing crops. Severe rain and wind storms occurred in Northern Missouri Sunday, damaging small buildings, and fruit and corn crops.

World's Fair Attendance.

St. Louis, Aug. 22.—The attendance at the world's fair for the past week almost equals that of the week previous, although the past week was not marked with so many attractions. The total number of admissions for the past week was 641,288, and for the week previous, 666,607.

It was here that the greatest loss of life in St. Paul occurred, and here the majority of serious injuries were recorded, for from the mass of debris mangled forms were borne by the score.

The House of Good Shepards was badly damaged and one child was killed and many others injured, none fatally.

The two highest spans of the high bridge across the Mississippi river were snapped off on the West side and hurled, a twisted mass of iron and steel, down upon the shanties beneath, the occupants of which had all taken shelter in a cave and escaped injury.

Down Third street from Wabasha to Sibley, up both Jackson and Robert streets from Third to Tenth, and down Seventh street from Broadway to Bradley, the greatest destruction was wrought.

Fort Snelling escaped without much damage.

LOSS AT MINNEAPOLIS

SEVERAL PERSONS KILLED AND MUCH VALUABLE PROPERTY DESTROYED.

Minneapolis, Aug. 22.—The storm which visited Minneapolis caused damage to the amount of several hundred thousand dollars and cost a number of lives.

One man was killed in Minneapolis and three persons met death at St. Louis Park. At Waconia, one of the towns beyond Lake Minnetonka, four persons met death in the storm.

The only person killed in Minneapolis was Richard Hilgedick.

Three persons were killed and over twenty injured by the storm which swept over the St. Louis Park district. Property valued at $100,000 was destroyed. The heaviest loss was T. B. Walker, the Minneapolis capitalist, who owns most of the twenty houses which were overturned and some of the manufacturing buildings.

The dead are Albert Ohde, aged thirty-two; Anna Haydo, aged six, and six-year-old son of Frank Hedger.

When day broke in Minneapolis Sunday morning there was a sorry sight. In the business district there were shattered store fronts, plate glass gave way to tarpaulin, telephone and telegraph wires trailed in the street, policemen were on guard at all places of business, bricks from shattered chimneys covered the pavement and stocks of valuable goods were scattered about the street or else massed in piles in the stores whose shelves they had once adorned, saturated with water and almost valueless.

Progress Difficult and Dangerous.

In the residence district trees which lined the street were lying prostrate. Locomotion in street or on walk was impossible, and dangling telephone and electric light wires made progress difficult and dangerous.

Considering the intensity of the storm, the fact that the residence districts of the city escaped with comparatively slight damage is remarkable.

Although a few structures were unroofed and the contents of the buildings drenched with water, as a rule the people of these districts suffered no great loss.

While the wind carried down trees which have withstood the storms of years, there was comparatively little damage to the structures. Frequently a house would be seen covered by half a dozen trees which had been thrown upon it by the winds, but in many instances not even a light of glass would be broken.

It was not until daylight that the full extent of the damage of the storm could be realized. Then it was found that on Nicollet avenue, from Fourth to Eighth streets, there was a paucity of plate glass and abundance of tarpaulins and boarded windows.

Pulverized glass, covered the entire business section of the city, and men were busy with shovels and brooms collecting the mass which had accumulated on the sidewalks.

Perhaps the greatest sufferer was the Donaldson Glass block. The glass in this building was almost all wrecked.

Five Minneapolis churches sustained severe damage during the storm.

Waconia, Minn., Aug. 22.—The cyclone which struck this village Saturday appeared to vent its full force on one family, three of whom were instantly killed and one so badly wounded that there is no hope for his recovery. While hundreds had escapes of the most miraculous character, the family of Gustaf Moye suffered the full fury of the wind, and father, mother and one son were instantly killed by the crash of their little home.

Of the 100 houses, residences and stores, seventy are more or less demolished, and the country for a strip one-half mile in width extending four miles along the Minneapolis and St. Louis tracks east and west, there is scarcely a building standing. Four dead, nine seriously injured and a property loss of $250,000 is the story in brief of the worst storm in the history of the community.

Gustaf Moye, aged forty-two; Mrs. Gustaf Moye, aged forty; Freddie Moye, aged four, and Hubert Loahmer, aged seventy-nine, were killed, and Fred Picha, eleven years old, was so seriously injured he will die.

Agree to Maintain Peace.

Corinto, Nicaragua, Aug. 22.—The conference between Presidents Escalon of Salvador, Bonilla of Honduras and Zelaya of Nicaragua came to a close here Saturday night. The three presidents signed an agreement to maintain peace in the republics of Central America.

ENTIRE TOWN IS GONE

St. Paul, Aug. 22.—The little town of Willow Lake, S. D., was literally wiped off the map by the terrific storm of Saturday night. The town was situated on the Huron-Benson division of the Great Northern railroad, thirty miles north of Huron.

Scores of houses were wrecked and scarcely a house was left standing on its original foundations, and few escaped without injury.

Telegraph poles and wires and many miles of fences were overturned. Crops were completely destroyed.

A number of persons were seriously injured, and it is thought that some may have been killed.

TO BEAT NONUNION MEN.

Chicago Truckmen Said to Have Made an Agreement.

Chicago, Aug. 22.—Captain Clancy of the stockyards police station announced Sunday that a man who had been arrested with a number of others for beating a nonunion man employed in the stockyards had confessed to him that the local union No. 213 of the Truckmen's union had unanimously voted to adopt slugging methods in connection with the stockyards strike, and that the 600 members of the organization had been divided into squads by Business Agent James Devine. The duty of these squads, which, according to the confession, Captain Clancy says he obtained from his prisoner, was to drag nonunion men from street cars and beat them.

Alexander Brezovsky, a nonunion man, was dragged from an Ashland avenue car near Thirty-eighth street, severely beaten, robbed of his shoes and left half dead in the gutter. The police arrested Christain Byron, Albert Allison, Marcus Debusek and John Petrasky on a charge of being implicated in the assault.

After being taken to the station, Byron, according to Captain Clancy, told him the story given above. In addition, he declared that he and his companions boarded the car and Brezovsky was pointed out to them by the conductor. They dragged him from the car and beat him.

INDIAN SLAYER IS DEAD.

George Salter of Pioneer Fame Dies in Wisconsin.

New Lisbon, Wis., Aug. 22.—George Salter, known throughout this section as a bitter Indian hater who, during his life killed eighteen redskins to avenge the murder of his wife, died Sunday at the age of seventy-six years. Salter's wife was murdered in 1865, and he is said to have slain the murderer of his wife and seventeen other Indians.

ATTACKING FORCE DEFEATED

Chefoo, Aug. 22.—The Japanese have swept the Russians from Pigeon bay and captured the northernmost fort of the western line of inner defenses at Port Arthur. The Russian artillery prevents the Japanese from occupying the fort on Pigeon bay.

Information from Port Arthur up to Aug. 18, shows that the besiegers have been reinforced by thirty regiments from General Oku's army.

Heavy firing was heard by the steamer Slyphall on Aug. 20.

A general assault is expected to be made upon the fortress Sunday and Monday.

The first detailed news of the general assault on Port Arthur indicates that a tremendous conflict is raging and that victory is hanging in the balance.

Chinese who left Port Arthur Sunday and arrived here Monday state that the Japanese, by making desperate charges which were reinforced by an artillery fire from Shushiyen and Louisa bay, swept from the north into Pigeon bay territory and drove the Russians back from the main forts. The ground being comparatively flat in this vicinity, the Japanese were unable to hold it in the face of the Russian artillery fire, and they retired north an eighth of a mile beyond the zone of the fire.

The Chinese declared that the Japanese captured one important fort located on the Itz Shan hills, midway between the western coast and the railway on a line drawn approximately from a point midway between Pigeon and Louisa bays.

The fighting resulting in the capture of this fort was very severe.

REPORTS A JAP REPULSE.

General Stoessel Tells of Fighting at Port Arthur.

St. Petersburg, Aug. 22.—Emperor Nicholas has received the following message from Lieutenant General Stoessel, commander of the military forces at Port Arthur, dated Aug. 16: "Japanese made a two days' attack on our positions at Uglovia mountains, near Louisa bay. All their attacks were repulsed. The Uglovia, Visogia and Divisionia mountains remain in our hands. The enemy's losses were very great."

"The following officers particularly distinguished themselves: General Kondratonke, Colonel Irmann, Lieutenant Colonel Volochin and Captain Androff."

"This morning a representative of the Japanese army, Major Yamarakoa, presented himself at our advanced post with a letter signed by General Nogi and Admiral Togo, demanding the surrender of the fortress. The proposal was, of course, rejected."

"I have the happiness to report that troops are in excellent condition and that they fight heroically."

WANT TO FIGHT AT MUKDEN.

Russians Think Japs Will Not Attack Liaoyang.

Mukden, Aug. 22.—The belief is increasing here that the Japanese do not intend to make a direct attack on General Kuropatkin's position at Liaoyang. The movements of the Japanese and other information indicate that they will try, rather, to force an engagement in the vicinity of Mukden.

The rains have not damaged the railway but have destroyed a number of bridges.

A small fight occurred on Aug. 19 on the Motien pass road, seven miles east of Liaoyang, but its results were unimportant.

TELEGRAPHIC BREVITIES.

Senator Hoar of Massachusetts shows no sign of improvement.

A heavy rain has aided materially in extinguishing the forest fires in Northern Montana.

A furious rainstorm prevailed all over Southeastern Iowa Sunday, doing considerable damage to standing crops.

Severe rain and wind storms occurred in Northern Missouri Sunday, damaging small buildings, and fruit and corn crops.

"SWEET CLOVER" TONIGHT.

"Sweet Clover," which appears at the Brainerd opera house tonight is commended from the Atlantic to the Pacific by press and public. The following from the Kansas City Star is but one of a thousand commendatory criticisms taken from the leading journals of the country:

"If applause is a criterion of success, the greeting accorded the initial performance in Buffalo of the comedy drama, 'Sweet Clover,' must have proven highly satisfactory to the management and participants at the Teck theatre last night. The general tone of the play is elevating, and the morals with which it is interspersed, especially those pertaining to 'society,' as urban residents understand it, must certainly furnish food for reflection upon the members of the so-called swirl.

"The play is principally rural in character, dealing with those quaint, quiet modes of existence so charming to all those whose experiences have led them in highways and byways to enjoy living close to nature.

"Otis B. Thayer, in the character of Jerome Holcombe, is excellent; his interpretation very creditable; his manner suggests that old patriarch in this sort of drama, Denman Thompson. His work in connection with that of Gertrude Bondhill, as Lois Holcombe, met with the hearty commendation of the large audience, as was evinced by repeated curtain calls."

A CRANK ON TEA.

Cyrus W. Field's Encounter With an Expert Tea Taster.

It may be that the millionaire is no more eccentric than humbler mortals, and yet in the fierce white light of publicity it often seems so. Cyrus W. Field was never given to any of the expensive hobbies of other rich men. He did not dote on horses or yachts or pictures. But Mr. Field did like tea. He used to say there was only one man of his acquaintance who knew how to brew it, and that man was "Old Field." The father of the submarine cable used to travel a great deal by rail, but he never went anywhere without his favorite brand of tea and his personal utensils for brewing it.

Mr. Field seldom traveled in his private car, and none of his retinue of servants ever made tea for him. From his berth in the Pullman he rose early, as at home, and it was not an uncommon sight to see the gray old philanthropist half dressed and stirring about in a buffet car at daylight, seeking hot water with which to brew his choice young Hyson, a canister of which was invariably a part of his baggage.

One day when Mr. Field was going through Front street he was attracted by a tea taster who was sipping the contents of a number of small cups. Mr. Field watched the man carefully and observed his method of using boiling water. Finally he entered the place and said to the expert: "How long have you been in this business?"

"Thirty-one years," said the tea taster, who was enjoying an annual income of about $20,000.

"Well, you had better give it up," remarked Mr. Field frankly. "You don't know how to make tea and you are too old to learn. Let me brew some of that stuff for you."

The aged philanthropist poured water on some leaves which he took from a paper in his pocket, let it draw for a few seconds and invited the tea taster to test it. But the expert spat the stuff out. "Worst ever!" was his comment. "Not even properly brewed." Then Mr. Field, who was a sensitive man, turned on his heel and walked away, muttering, "If you are an expert, the good Lord help some of our tea drinkers." But when the millions were out of sight the tea taster roared with laughter and said to one of the clerks: "That was old Field. He's a crank on tea. Pays $9 a pound for it, and I told him it was like dishwater."

A Good Doctor.

One day in Shanghai, says a writer in the Chicago Record-Herald, when I was feeling sick, I called a Chinaman to me and said, "John, do you have good doctors in China?"

"Good doctors?" he exclaimed. "China have best doctors in world."

"Eudon, over there," I said, pointing to a house covered with a doctor's signs, "do you call him a good doctor?"

"Eudon good doctor!" he exclaimed. "He great! He best doctor in China. He save my life once!"

"You don't say so?" I said. "How was it?"

"Me velly sick," he said confidentially. "Me callee Dr. Han Kou. Givee some medicine. Get velly, velly sick! Me call Dr. Sam Sing. Givee more medicine. Me grow worse. Going to die! Blimey call Dr. Eudon. He no got time, no come. He savee my life!"

Siwash Fishing.

The Siwash Indians on Puget sound make their living principally by fishing, but the Siwash buck does not descend to go out for his evening meal of smelt or sardines with a hook and line as the white man does; he takes a long pole and for two feet from each end he makes a sort of comb of it by driving through it long, tin French nails, then he launches his canoe and goes out for a pleasant sail. He paddles easily with the pole, and every few minutes he pulls up a fish imbedded in the nails. With a shake he drops it inboard and then calmly continues his paddling.

Robbers Busy in Wisconsin.

"The play is principally rural in character, dealing with those quaint, quiet modes of existence so charming to all those whose experiences have led them in highways and byways to enjoy living close to nature.

"Otis B. Thayer, in the character of Jerome Holcombe, is excellent; his interpretation very creditable and his manner suggests that old patriarch in this sort of drama, Denman Thompson. His work in connection with that of Gertrude Bondhill, as Lois Holcombe, met with the hearty commendation of the large audience, as was evinced by repeated curtain calls."

A CRANK ON TEA.

It may be that the millionaire is no more eccentric than humbler mortals, and yet in the fierce white light of publicity it often seems so. Cyrus W. Field was never given to any of the expensive hobbies of other rich men. He did not dote on horses or yachts or pictures. But Mr. Field did like tea. He used to say there was only one man of his acquaintance who knew how to brew it, and that man was "Old Field." The father of the submarine cable used to travel a great deal by rail, but he never went anywhere without his favorite brand of tea and his personal utensils for brewing it.

Mr. Field seldom traveled in his private car, and none of his retinue of servants ever made tea for him. From his berth in the Pullman he rose early, as at home, and it was not an uncommon sight to see the gray old philanthropist half dressed and stirring about in a buffet car at daylight, seeking hot water with which to brew his choice young Hyson, a canister of which was invariably a part of his baggage.

One day when Mr. Field was going through Front street he was attracted by a tea taster who was sipping the contents of a number of small cups. Mr. Field watched the man carefully and observed his method of using boiling water. Finally he entered the place and said to the expert: "How long have you been in this business?"

"Thirty-one years," said the tea taster, who was enjoying an annual income of about $20,000.

"Well, you had better give it up," remarked Mr. Field frankly. "You don't know how to make tea and you are too old to learn. Let me brew some of that stuff for you."

The aged philanthropist poured water on some leaves which he took from a paper in his pocket, let it draw for a few seconds and invited the tea taster to test it. But the expert spat the stuff out. "Worst ever!" was his comment. "Not even properly brewed." Then Mr. Field, who was a sensitive man, turned on his heel and walked away, muttering, "If you are an expert, the good Lord help some of our tea drinkers."

But when the millionaire was out of sight the tea taster roared with laughter and said to one of the clerks: "That was old Field. He's a crank on tea. Pays $9 a pound for it, and I told him it was like dishwater."

A Good Doctor.

One day in Shanghai, says a writer in the Chicago Record-Herald, when I was feeling sick, I called a Chinaman to me and said, "John, do you have good doctors in China?"

"Good doctors?" he exclaimed. "China have best doctors in world."

"Eudon, over there," I said, pointing to a house covered with a doctor's signs, "do you call him a good doctor?"

"Eudon good doctor!" he exclaimed. "He great! He best doctor in China. He save my life once!"

"You don't say so!" I said. "How was it?"

Siwash Fishing.

The Siwash Indians on Puget sound make their living principally by fishing, but the Siwash buck does not condescend to go out for his evening meal of smelt or sardines with a hook and line as the white man does; he takes a long pole and for two feet from each end he makes a sort of comb of it by driving through it long, tin French nails, then he launches his canoe and goes out for a pleasant sail. He paddles easily with the pole, and every few minutes he pulls up a fish impaled on the nails. With a shake he drops it inboard and then calmly continues his paddling.

Robbers Busy in Wisconsin.

SATURDAY'S GAME.

The game on Saturday was witnessed by a very large crowd. Mattson was on the rubber for the locals and it was really the first good chance that Brainerd fans had to see what the youngster could do. To say that there is a future for this young man would be putting it mildly. He pitched a superb game and won hands down, notwithstanding it was up hill work for him all the way through, as some inexcusable errors were made by the men behind him. There was nothing doing in the scoring line until the fifth inning and up to that time the hits were also evenly divided, one apiece. Up to this time it seemed as though Witt, who was on the rubber for Bemidji, was almost invincible, but at Brainerd's turn to bat in the fifth his balloon went up and before the parachute leap was made the Brainerd sluggers slammed out one two bagger and two singles, netting four runs. The crowd went wild at this point. It was Bemidji's turn in the seventh and it looked as though they might duplicate the trick turned by Brainerd in the fifth, but Mattson steadied down and had the Beltrami county snuffers at his mercy. They started the fun in this inning by getting three singles and three runs after two men were out and the I-told-you-they-would-go-to-pieces man was much in evidence for a time.

Brainerd managed to score once more in the seventh and this gave them a fairly decent lead, 5 to 3. There was something threatening in the first of the ninth but Bemidji only scored once and the game was over, the score being 5 to 4 in favor of Brainerd.

The distinct feature of the game was the pitching of Mattson. He was somewhat erratic at times but always managed to pitch himself out of bad holes and the snap and ginger that he put into his work made the opposition base runners hug the bases all the time.

SUNDAY'S GAME.

Bemidji realized more than ever yesterday afternoon that they went to the well just once too often when they clashed up against the locals for the second time on the local grounds. The fact that Brainerd won the game Saturday and it having been generally advertised that the Bemidji team was a strong one, there was an unusually large crowd out to the game yesterday. It is estimated that there were fully 1000 to 1200 people present and the rooting and enthusiasm in the game was at a high high pitch throughout. "Jim" Boyle was the performing artist under the limo light yesterday and it stood him in hand to win his game, for he had yet to fall down this season and it was confidently thought that if he pitched in his usual form that Brainerd could win. He demonstrated his ability yesterday by being able to pitch a gilt edge quality of ball, having a clear head and fielding his position with great care and diligence. He let the visitors down with only four hits, two of these being made by Bungo, who is considered one of the best men with the stick in this part of the country. Boyle had the team at his mercy, but as in the game Saturday his team mates made several bad errors and if it were not for this fact Bemidji would not have had but one score instead of the three that is credited up to her. Emerson, the fast Indian twirler, was the slab artist for Bemidji. He is not so worse and for a time he kept the locals puzzled, but it was thought that they would connect sooner or later and they did. The inevitable minute was scheduled for the eighth inning when Brainerd slammed out three pretty ones and these with a base or two on balls, netted the home team four scores. Emerson went way up in the air and never came down at all.

He struck out six men during the game and Brainerd slammed out nine hits on him. Bemidji was the first to score yesterday. Bungo, slammed a two bagger out in the first inning. He edged around to third. Witt up went out from Ed Boyle to Jack Boyle at first. Stillman struck out. Then Ray came up and it looked as though Jim Boyle would retire the side easily. Ray knocked a dinky pop up and a mistake was made that Roderick did not allow Jim B to field the ball. He ran out into the diamond under the ball and being a very hard one muffed it. Bungo was home and Ray was safe at first. The agony was over in a few minutes, however, for Ray was caught out at second. Bemidji made one more in the third and another in the eighth, but that was all the score getting there was on their side.

Brainerd started things in the second, making 2 scores. Bemidji scored in the fifth and the score then remained a tie until the eighth inning, both teams straining every effort to get a lead.

In the eighth it looked bad for Brainerd when Bemidji was up. Stillman started the fireworks with a beaut of a three bagger. Ray slammed a high fly to center field and Murphy got under it and made as pretty a throw to the home plate as has ever been seen in Brainerd and many in the grand stand thought that Roderick caught Stillman out at home, but Umpire Peterson ruled otherwise, which he was perfectly justified in doing as it was very close and he could not see from the pitcher's box. This gave Bemidji a lead of one and it stood Brainerd in hand to do something in the eighth. They did it.

Bungo got his needs in this inning. E. Boyle was the first up and he drew first on balls. Pat Boyle slammed out a nice single, Roderick had his eagle eye with him and got first on balls, Mattson slammed out a single, scoring E. Boyle, Jack Boyle got his base on balls, Templeton flied out to second, but everybody played safe and this was only one out with the bases full. There were exciting times about then and "Baldy" Murphy was up to bat. Now "Baldy" is one of those guys that is always a good one in emergency cases and of course he didn't do a thing but line the ball over the fence for a two bagger, cleaning up all the bases except Jack Boyle who got to third. This gave them four scores for this inning and the next one was a fly to deep center by Jim Boyle and Jack Boyle came trotting home. Senti flied out to Witt at second retiring the side, but with Brainerd four in the lead. Bemidji didn't do anything in the ninth and there was a rush for the gates.

KIDS STEAL A HORSE

Belonging to A. J. Heitmiller While He Was Attending Church in East Brainerd Yesterday.

Two small boys, ages 9 and 11, stole a horse yesterday morning belonging to A. J. Heitmiller. Mr. Heitmiller was attending church and the horse was tied up outside and when he came out it was gone.

The horse and buggy were found across the river near Gilbert lake later in the afternoon and it was discovered that two young boys had taken it there. On account of their extreme youth and the fact that they belong to well known families the boys will not be prosecuted.

MUST BELIEVE IT

When Well Known Brainerd People Tell it so Plainly.

When public endorsement is made by a representative citizen of Brainerd the proof is positive. You must believe it. Read this testimony. Every backache sufferer, every man woman or child with any kidney trouble will find profit in the reading.

Mrs. M. G. Blake, of West Brainerd, says: "I suffered a great deal from inflammation of the kidneys and I grew worse in place of better. My back in the region of the kidneys was sore, lame and hurt me very much, an aching pain being ever present. The kidney secretions were dark in color and on standing deposited much sediment. When Doan's Kidney Pills were advertised I sent my son for a box. I was a little afraid I would not be able to use them for I cannot take some kinds of medicine. I found, however, that they were mild in their operations and did not produce any bad effects. Before taking them very long the kidney secretions became healthy in color, all deposit was removed and the soreness and pain were replaced by a perfectly comfortable feeling."

Sold for 50 cents a box by H. P. Dunn & Co. and all druggists. Foster Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the U. S.

Piles Can Be Cured

By Internal Treatment

Without the Aid of Narcotics or the Knife
You who suffer with piles know what a glorious boon it would be to you to be absolutely and painlessly cured. You know from actual experience that salves, ointments and other local applications do not cure. You may get relief, but you keep on suffering. There is a cause for every human ill. Remove the cause and you cure the complaint. Piles have two distinct causes: First, congestion of the liver; second, constipation resulting from poor digestion.

Dr. Perrin's Pile Specific

The Internal Remedy

SATURDAY'S GAME.

The game on Saturday was witnessed by a very large crowd. Mattson was on the rubber for the locals and it was really the first good chance that Brainerd fans had to see what the youngster could do. To say that there is a future for this young man would be putting it mildly. He pitched a superb game and won hands down, notwithstanding it was up hill work for him all the way through, as some inexcusable errors were made by the men behind him. There was nothing doing in the scoring line until the fifth inning and up to that time the hits were also evenly divided, one apiece. Up to this time it seemed as though Witt, who was on the rubber for Bemidji, was almost invincible, but at Brainerd's turn to bat in the fifth, but Mattson steadied down and had the Beltrami county snuffers at his mercy. They started the fun in this inning by getting three singles and three runs after two men were out and the I-told-you-they-would-go-to-pieces man was much in evidence for a time.

Brainerd managed to score once more in the seventh and this gave them a fairly decent lead, 5 to 3. There was something threatening in the first of the ninth but Bemidji only scored once and the game was over, the score being 5 to 4 in favor of Brainerd.

The distinct feature of the game was the pitching of Mattson. He was somewhat erratic at times but always managed to pitch himself out of bad holes and the snap and ginger that he put into his work made the opposition base runners hug the bases all the time.

SUNDAY'S GAME.

Bemidji realized more than ever yesterday afternoon that they went to the well just once too often when they clashed up against the locals for the second time on the local grounds. The fact that Brainerd won the game Saturday and it having been generally advertised that the Bemidji team was a strong one, there was an unusually large crowd out to the game yesterday. It is estimated that there were fully 1000 to 1200 people present and the rooting and enthusiasm in the game was at a high pitch throughout. "Jim" Boyle was the performing artist under the lime light yesterday and it stood him in hand to win his game, for he had yet to fall down this season and it was confidently thought that if he pitched in his usual form that Brainerd could win. He demonstrated his ability yesterday by being able to pitch a gilt edge quality of ball, having a clear head and fielding his position with great care and diligence. He let the visitors down with only four hits, two of these being made by Bungo, who is considered one of the best men with the stick in this part of the country. Boyle had the team at his mercy, but as in the game Saturday his team mates made several bad errors and if it were not for this fact Bemidji would not have had but one score instead of the three that is credited up to her. Emerson, the fast Indian twirler, was the slab artist for Bemidji. He is not so worse and for a time he kept the locals puzzled, but it was thought that they would connect sooner or later and they did. The inevitable minute was scheduled for the eighth inning when Brainerd slammed out three pretty ones and these with a base or two on balls, netted the home team four scores. Emerson went way up in the air and never came down at all.

He struck out six men during the game and Brainerd slammed out nine hits on him. Bemidji was the first to score yesterday. Bungo up, slammed a two bagger out in the first inning. He edged around to third. Witt went out from Ed. Boyle to Jack Boyle at first. Stillman struck out. Then Ray came up and it looked as though Jim Boyle would retire the side easily. Ray knocked a dinky pop up and a mistake was made that Roderick did not allow Jim B to field the ball. He ran out into the diamond under the ball and being a very hard one muffed it. Bungo was home and Ray was safe at first. The agony was over in a few minutes, however, for Ray was caught out at second. Bemidji made one more in the third and another in the eighth, but that was all the score getting there was on their side.

Brainerd started things in the second, making 2 scores. Bemidji scored in the fifth and the score then remained a tie until the eighth inning, both teams straining every effort to get a lead.

In the eighth it looked bad for Brainerd when Bemidji was up. Stillman started the fireworks with a beaut of a three bagger. Ray slammed a high fly to center field and Murphy got under it and made as pretty a throw to the home plate as has ever been seen in Brainerd and many in the grand stand thought that Roderick caught Stillman out at home, but Umpire Peterson ruled otherwise, which he was perfectly justified in doing as it was very close and he could not see from the pitcher's box. This gave Bemidji a lead of one and it stood Brainerd in hand to do something in the eighth. They did it.

Bungo got his needings in this inning. E. Boyle was the first up and he drew first on balls. Pat Boyle slammed out a nice single, Roderick had his eagle eye with him and got first on balls, Mattson slammed out a single, scoring E. Boyle, Jack Boyle got his base on balls, Templeton flied out to second, but everybody played safe and this was only one out with the bases full. There were exciting times about then and "Baldy" Murphy was up to bat. Now "Baldy" is one of those guys that is always a good one in emergency cases and of course he didn't do a thing but line the ball over the fence for a two bagger, cleaning up all the bases except Jack Boyle who got to third. This gave them four scores for this inning and the next one was a fly to deep center by Jim Boyle and Jack Boyle came trotting home. Senti flied out to Witt at second retiring the side, but with Brainerd four in the lead. Bemidji didn't do anything in the ninth and there was a rush for the gates.

The following is the story of yesterday's game:

Two small boys, ages 9 and 11, stole a horse yesterday morning belonging to A. J. Heitmiller. Mr. Heitmiller was attending church and the horse was tied up outside and when he came out it was gone.

The horse and buggy were found across the river near Gilbert lake later in the afternoon and it was discovered that two young boys had taken it there. On account of their extreme youth and the fact that they belong to well known families the boys will not be prosecuted.

When Well Known Brainerd People Tell it so Plainly.

When public endorsement is made by a representative citizen of Brainerd the proof is positive. You must believe it. Read this testimony. Every backache sufferer, every man woman or child with any kidney trouble will find profit in the reading.

Mrs. M. G. Blake, of West Brainerd, says: "I suffered a great deal from inflammation of the kidneys and I grew worse in place of better. My back in the region of the kidneys was sore, lame and hurt me very much, an aching pain being ever present. The kidney secretions were dark in color and on standing deposited much sediment. When Doan's Kidney Pills were advertised I sent my son for a box. I was a little afraid I would not be able to use them for I cannot take some kinds of medicine. I found, however, that they were mild in their operations and did not produce any bad effects. Before taking them very long the kidney secretions became healthy in color, all deposit was removed and the soreness and pain were replaced by a perfectly comfortable feeling."

CREATES A COMMOTION AT SHANGHAI.

AMERICAN SHIP INTERVENES

PLACES HERSELF BETWEEN JAP
CRAFT AND RUSSIAN WAR-
SHIP ASKOLD.

Shanghai, Aug. 22.—Shanghai was thrown into a fever of excitement Sunday afternoon by the arrival of a Japanese torpedo boat which was sighted coming in from the south at 4:30 p. m. She passed the port of Woosung at full speed and started up the river Ju for Shanghai. The United States torpedo boat destroyer Chauncey slipped her cable and followed the Japanese destroyer. The Japanese boat was cleared for action. She anchored off the Cosmopolitan dock, where the Russian cruiser Askold is undergoing repairs. The Chauncey came to anchor practically between the dock and the Japanese destroyer.

A foreign pilot ship reports having seen a Japanese battleship and two cruisers cruising sixty miles outside of Woosung. There are at present no Chinese men-of-war in this port, but the taotai has telegraphed that a Chinese cruiser be sent immediately.

Refuses to Disarm Russian Warships.

The Russian consul general here flatly refuses to disarm the Askold and the Russian torpedo boat destroyer Grozovoi, or to order them to leave the harbor.

The taotai has notified American Consul Goodnow, who is dean of the consular body, that China cannot protect the foreign settlements. He contends that Russia ignores the orders issued by China, and China has not the means of making her obey them.

Consul Goodnow has called a meeting of the consular body to take joint action for the protection of foreign inhabitants.

The Askold has docked adjacent to the warehouses here of the Standard Oil company, which are valued at $1,000,000. The Standard Oil company has demanded protection for its property from Consul Goodnow.

The dock where the Askold lies is owned by British interests. On one side of this dock is German and Dutch property and on the other side American property.

There are eight American, one German, two British and four French warships here.

ACTION CAUSES SURPRISE.

Diplomats Astonished at Intervention of American Vessel.

London, Aug. 22.—The intervention of the American squadron at Shanghai in the Japanese operations against the Russian cruiser Askold created considerable surprise in official and diplomatic circles here. The Japanese legation was at first inclined to believe that the report that the United States torpedo boat destroyer Chauncey steamed into a position between the Japanese torpedo boat and the Russian cruiser was a "Shanghai fake," as it had understood that the American government would not object to offensive action against Russian warships in case of their failure to observe Chinese neutrality. An official of the legation said:

"If the report is not untrue the American commander must have had good reason for his action, such as the protection of the American interests, which would have been endangered by flying shells.

Reluctant to Send Ships Into Harbor.

"Japan has been very reluctant to send ships into the harbor, for she recognized the international character of Shanghai and that the laws of neutrality demanded that China should order the Askold and the Grozovoi to be dismantled or leave the port, and that she having given the order that the Russian ships had refused, it was then incumbent for Japan to act, thereby protecting Chinese neutrality and at the same time exerting her rights as a belligerent.

"It would never have done to permit Russian ships to remain in a Chinese port, deliberately and avowedly violating the neutrality of the country.

"Whatever reason actuated the American commander if he really did as reported, it is certain that no complications will follow."

It is believed at the Japanese legation that if the American commander intervened to preserve Chinese neutrality the American government will take measures to enforce it.

HAD A RIGHT TO ENTER HARBOR.

Jap Vessel Violated No Law in Reconnoitering at Shanghai.

Washington, Aug. 22.—Some doubt was expressed at the Japanese legation here that a United States torpedo boat should have deliberately put herself between the Russian ships Askold and Grozovoi and a Japanese torpedo boat which arrived off the port Sunday. The opinion was expressed that the Japanese vessel had a perfect right to go in and reconnoiter to ascertain if the Russian ships had disarmed, and this is believed by the legation officials to have been her object rather than to attack the Russian vessels lying at Shanghai, and thus violate neutrality.

The Japanese legation officials were not inclined to construe the action of the commander of the American torpedo boat in the light of intervention and said it might be to protect the business interests in Shanghai from some danger that it had been apprehended might occur.

Attempts to reach naval officials having knowledge of the movement of United States vessels in the far East as well as the orders governing such movements were unavailing.

EXCITEMENT IS HIGH

CREATES A COMMOTION AT SHANGHAI.

AMERICAN SHIP INTERVENES

SHIP ASKOLD.

Shanghai, Aug. 22.—Shanghai was thrown into a fever of excitement Sunday afternoon by the arrival of a Japanese torpedo boat which was sighted coming in from the south at 4:30 p. m. She passed the port of Woosung at full speed and started up the river Ju for Shanghai. The United States torpedo boat destroyer Chauncey slipped her cable and followed the Japanese destroyer. The Japanese boat was cleared for action. She anchored off the Cosmopolitan dock, where the Russian cruiser Askold is undergoing repairs. The Chauncey came to anchor practically between the dock and the Japanese destroyer.

A foreign pilot ship reports having seen a Japanese battleship and two cruisers cruising sixty miles outside of Woosung. There are at present no Chinese men-of-war in this port, but the taotai has telegraphed that a Chinese cruiser be sent immediately.

Refuses to Disarm Russian Warships.

The Russian consul general here flatly refuses to disarm the Askold and the Russian torpedo boat destroyer Grozovoi, or to order them to leave the harbor.

The taotai has notified American Consul Goodnow, who is dean of the consular body, that China cannot protect the foreign settlements. He contends that Russia ignores the orders issued by China, and China has not the means of making her obey them. Consul Goodnow has called a meeting of the consular body to take joint action for the protection of foreign inhabitants.

The Askold has docked adjacent to the warehouses here of the Standard Oil company, which are valued at $1,000,000. The Standard Oil company has demanded protection for its property from Consul Goodnow.

The dock where the Askold lies is owned by British interests. On one side of this dock is German and Dutch property and on the other side American property.

There are eight American, one German, two British and four French warships here.

ACTION CAUSES SURPRISE.

Diplomats Astonished at Intervention of American Vessel.

London, Aug. 22.—The intervention of the American squadron at Shanghai in the Japanese operations against the Russian cruiser Askold created considerable surprise in official and diplomatic circles here. The Japanese legation was at first inclined to believe that the report that the United States torpedo boat destroyer Chauncey steamed into a position between the Japanese torpedo boat and the Russian cruiser was a "Shanghai fake," as it had understood that the American government would not object to offensive action against Russian warships in case of their failure to observe Chinese neutrality. An official of the legation said: "If the report is not untrue the American commander must have had good reason for his action, such as the protection of the American interests, which would have been endangered by flying shells."

Reluctant to Send Ships Into Harbor.

"Japan has been very reluctant to send ships into the harbor, for she recognized the international character of Shanghai and that the laws of neutrality demanded that China should order the Askold and the Grozovoi to be dismantled or leave the port, and that she having given the order that the Russian ships had refused, it was then incumbent for Japan to act, thereby protecting Chinese neutrality and at the same time exerting her rights as a belligerent."

"It would never have done to permit Russian ships to remain in a Chinese port, deliberately and avowedly violating the neutrality of the country."

"Whatever reason actuated the American commander if he really did as reported, it is certain that no complications will follow."

It is believed at the Japanese legation that if the American commander intervened to preserve Chinese neutrality the American government will take measures to enforce it.

HAD A RIGHT TO ENTER HARBOR.

Jap Vessel Violated No Law in Reconnoitering at Shanghai.

Washington, Aug. 22.—Some doubt was expressed at the Japanese legation here that a United States torpedo boat should have deliberately put herself between the Russian ships Askold and Grozovoi and a Japanese torpedo boat which arrived off the port Sunday. The opinion was expressed that the Japanese vessel had a perfect right to go in and reconnoiter to ascertain if the Russian ships had disarmed, and this is believed by the legation officials to have been her object rather than to attack the Russian vessels lying at Shanghai, and thus violate neutrality.

The Japanese legation officials were not inclined to construe the action of the commander of the American torpedo boat in the light of intervention and said it might be to protect the business interests in Shanghai from some danger that it had been apprehended might occur.

Attempts to reach naval officials having knowledge of the movement of United States vessels in the far East as well as the orders governing such movements were unavailing.
